Revised rates per hour for 2006

1. The KR-rules stipulate that "the maximum limit for rates per hour (salary based and not salary based) are adjusted each year per 1 January on the basis of the revision of the price index of Denmark's Statistics per 31 October during the previous year based on the net price index which per 31 October 2000 was 100,8".
2. Denmark's Statistics has on the 10 November 2005 stated that the net price index per 31 October 2005 was 111,8. Compared to the net price index per 31 October 2000 of 100,8, it corresponds to an adjustment percentage of 11,0%.
(2,4% from 2005 to 2006)
3. The salary based maximum rates per hour per 1 January 2006 are hereafter:

Category A, B, C, D, E and G DKK 430

Category F DKK 271

The maximum rates per hour based on seniority per 1 January 2006 are:
